NAPA ANTITRUST POLICY

The antitrust laws seek to preserve a free competitive economy in the United States and in commerce with foreign countries. As a general rule, competitors may not restrain competition among themselves through understandings or agreements as to the price, the production, or the distribution of their products or services, or other agreements which unreasonably restrict competition. With some exceptions, competitors may not act in concert to restrict the competitive capabilities or opportunities of their competitors, their suppliers, or their customers.

The antitrust laws, however, are often of unclear applicability, and in certain circumstances, unlawful agreements can be inferred from circumstantial evidence. Furthermore, penalties for violating the antitrust laws are severe. The guidelines set forth below are designed to avoid even the appearance of questionable activity by the Association and its members.

NAPA, through its meeting activities, brings together representatives of competitors throughout the industry. The subject matters of NAPA's activities are technical or educational in nature. Nevertheless, NAPA's Board of Directors recognizes the remote possibility that the Association and its activities can be abused and be seen by those unaware of or determined to violate the law as providing an opportunity for anticompetitive conduct. Through this statement of policy, the NAPA Board reiterates its unequivocal support for the policy of competition served by the antitrust laws and uncompromising intent as individual companies and as an Association to comply strictly in all respects with those laws governing competitive activities.

At all meetings of the National Asphalt Pavement Association's Board of Directors and committees, as well as all association-sponsored seminars, conferences, webinars and task force and working group sessions and among Association members, the following will not be discussed:

- Individual company prices, price changes, price differentials, markups, discounts, credit terms, etc.
- Individual company data on costs, production, capacity, inventories, sales, labor, supplies, etc.
- Agreements on terms of sale, warranties, or contract provisions.
- What constitutes a "fair profit level."
- Standardization or stabilization of prices.
- Pricing procedures or formulas.
- Confidential future marketing or pricing plans.
- Control of sales.
- Allocation of customers or geographic division of markets – agreements not to compete.
- Refusal to deal with a company because of its pricing or distribution practices.
- Whether or not the pricing practices of any industry member are unethical or constitute an unfair trade practice.
- Information concerning any individual company's costs, profits, inventory, market share, or other commercial information of a non-public nature.

Notwithstanding the prohibitions on certain cooperation between competitors described above, Association members may be immunized from antitrust liability when they cooperate to influence governmental action, such as joint legislative or regulatory initiatives. It should be viewed as very limited permission to influence jointly any branch of the government.

It is important to remember that the doctrine immunizes cooperating competitors from liability only from any harm to competition that is caused by the resulting governmental action. It does not immunize competitors who behave or share information improperly at any time, even if they are doing so in the course of influencing law- or policy-makers. For example, competitors may not share future pricing moves with each other in preparation for an effort to convince a lawmaking body to set a price floor for an industry.

Further, if the Association embarks on the development of specific product standards or a code of ethics for its members or the compilation of industry statistics, such activities shall be developed and conducted in a manner consistent with applicable antitrust laws with the prior approval of the Board of Directors of the Association and advice of counsel.

To avoid even the appearance of questionable activity, as well as to guard against inadvertent conduct, Association meetings should observe the following guidelines and procedures:

- A written agenda will be prepared and adhered to.
- Accurate minutes of every meeting will be prepared and approved.
- Minutes of the meeting will be distributed to all committee members.
- In case of doubt about the propriety of a discussion, or a particular topic of discussion, Association counsel will be consulted.
- If a member has a reservation concerning remarks or discussion at an Association meeting, that member should state the reservation.

NAPA CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

The purpose of this Conflict of Interest Policy is to protect the interests of the National Asphalt Pavement Association (the association) in connection with any transaction arrangement that might benefit the private interests of any employee, any association Officer, Director, Committee Member or Member. Employees and any association members in a position to act on behalf of the association shall perform their duties for the association in good faith and with the degree of care that an ordinarily prudent person would exercise under similar circumstances.

Employees and association members have an obligation to conduct business within guidelines that prohibit actual or potential conflicts of interest. This policy establishes the framework within which NAPA wishes the business to operate. The purpose of these guidelines is to provide general direction so that employees and association members can seek further clarification on issues related to the subject of acceptable standards of operation. Contact the President or the Vice President of Finance and Operations for more information or questions about conflicts of interest.

Employees and association members must act with loyalty to the Association meaning that no employee or association member may use their position with the Association to make personal profit or gain other personal advantage.

Transactions with outside firms must be conducted within a framework established and controlled by the executive level of NAPA management. Business dealings with outside firms should not result in unusual gains for those firms. Unusual gain refers to bribes, product bonuses, special fringe benefits, unusual price breaks, and other windfalls designed to ultimately benefit either the employer, the employee, or association members. Promotional plans that could be interpreted to involve unusual gain require specific management approval.

An actual or potential conflict of interest occurs when an employee or association member is in a position to influence a decision that may result in a personal gain for that employee or for a relative as a result of NAPA's business dealings. For the purposes of this policy, a relative is any person who is related by blood or marriage, or whose relationship with the employee or association member is similar to that of persons who are related by blood or marriage.

Employees and association members may not engage in any transaction or arrangement or undertake positions with other organizations that involve a conflict of interest except in compliance with this Policy. Employees and association members should avoid both actual conflicts and the appearance of conflicts of interest.

Association members shall excuse themselves from voting on any transaction or arrangement in which they have a potential or actual conflict of interest and shall not be present when such vote is taken.

No "presumption of guilt" is created by the mere existence of a relationship with outside firms. However, if employees or association members have any influence on transactions involving purchases, contracts, or leases, it is imperative that they disclose to the President or Vice President Finance and Operations of NAPA as soon as possible the existence of any actual or potential conflict of interest so that safeguards can be established to protect all parties.

Personal gain may result not only in cases where an employee or relative has a significant ownership in a firm with which NAPA does business, but also when an employee or relative receives any kickback, bribe, substantial gift, or special consideration as a result of any transaction or business dealings involving NAPA.

DISCLOSURE/EVALUATION

Each employee or association member shall promptly and fully disclose all material facts of every actual or potential conflict of interest to the Association's President. The President will evaluate and disclose any conflicts of interest to NAPA's Board of Directors for evaluation and attempt to develop alternatives to remove the conflict from the situation. The minutes of the Board Meeting will reflect this discussion and the suggested action, if any.

ENFORCEMENT

Each employee or association member who is in a position to act on behalf of NAPA shall sign a statement acknowledging that they have received a copy of this Policy, have read and understand it, and agree to comply with it.

NAPA MEETINGS POLICY

Authority to Speak or Act for the National Asphalt Pavement Association

Only those persons who have been authorized to speak for, or act on behalf of, the National Asphalt Pavement Association, in accordance with the Association's Bylaws, Board of Directors' Rules, or the Rules of Operation of NAPA Committees/Task Forces, may so speak or act and shall so speak or act only with respect to those matters on which they have been authorized to speak or act. No person not authorized to speak for or act on behalf of the Association shall represent or hold himself out to any other person as possessing or exercising, whether expressed or implied, such authority. No person shall have the authority to bind the Association, either orally or in writing, without the prior (written) approval of the Board of Directors. In the area of Codes and Standards development and Codes and Standards interpretation, the Association shall conform to all mandatory Government Standards, American National Standards Institute – National Standards, and current NAPA rules as approved by the Board of Directors.

PHOTOS & VIDEOS

As a NAPA meeting attendee, you may be photographed or videographed, and these images may be used to document the event and/or promote the Association and its offerings. By attending this event, you grant full permission and rights to NAPA to use your likeness, without compensation, as recorded at this meeting.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT HOURS (PDHs)

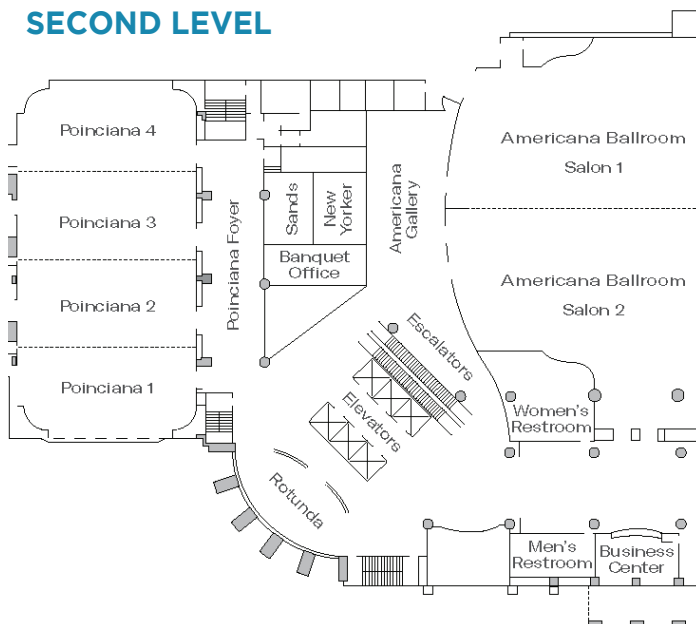

PDHs may be claimed for attending NAPA Annual Meeting educational workshops and applicable general sessions. Each hour of participation may be eligible for one PDH. A maximum of 7.5 PDH hours can be earned during the Annual Meeting.

Attendees must maintain their own records of attendance. NAPA will confirm an individual's registration at the request of a licensing or certifying agency. Anyone seeking PDH credits should check with their state licensing board to ensure that self-reported PDH credits will be accepted.

GENERAL SESSION I

Passing of the Gavel

2022 NAPA Chairman Jim Mitchell, CEO of Superior Paving Corp., provides an overview of accomplishments and passes the gavel to 2023 NAPA Chair Christian Zimmermann, New England Group President, CRH Americas Materials Inc.

Conversation with Lindsey Vonn

Lindsey Vonn is a recently retired Olympic gold and bronze medal-winning alpine ski racer for the US Ski Team as well as a New York Times bestselling author. She is the most successful female skier of all time and holds four World Cup titles, making her one of only six women to win World Cup races in all five disciplines of alpine skiing. Debuting first at the 2021 Alpine Skiing World Cup Races, Vonn is an NBC Sports broadcast analyst. She served as an International Games Ambassador in the 2018 Winter Olympics. She is also the founder of the Lindsey Vonn Foundation, established to empower young girls. Lindsey splits her time between Park City, Utah, and Los Angeles, California.

Optimizing Operations to Reduce Emissions & Save Money

Second Level—Americana 3/4

With so many variables during asphalt mix production, understanding the keys to efficiency is critical for achieving an optimized operation. Field experience has shown a number of reliable rules of thumb that allow asphalt producers to hone their operations, save energy, and therefore reduce emissions. Focusing attention on three areas—heating and drying, maintaining operable asphalt binder and plant temperatures, and electrical systems for operating the asphalt plant—allows asphalt producers to find successes in reducing both emissions and costs.

Speaker:

T.J. Young, President, T2ASCO LLC – Technical Training & Advisory Services Company

Attracting Talent for the Next Decade

Second Level—Americana 1

Without a plan that addresses the underlying requirements for recruiting over the next decade, individual companies will continue to struggle with an industry-wide workforce shortage. This session includes a framework and accompanying tactics to improve each organization's ability to attract and develop new talent pipelines for years to come.

Speaker:

Thomas Haun, Chief Operating Officer, Turner Mining Group

The New Frontier: Evaluating Asphalt's Competitive Advantage in a Sustainable World

Second Level—Americana 2

Owners are beginning to quantify the environmental impacts of asphalt materials through environmental product declarations (EPDs) and life cycle assessment. In 2021, FHWA developed LCA Pave, a tool for conducting life cycle assessments of pavement structures. NAPA and the SAPAs (through the PEC) funded work to evaluate outputs from the tool on alternative design/alternative bid jobs. See the preliminary data, understand limitations of the analysis, and hear what industry needs to do to communicate the sustainable attributes of asphalt mixtures.

Panelists:

Heather Dylla, PhD, VP Sustainability and Innovation, Construction Partners, Inc.

Suri Gatiganti, Research Engineer,
National Center for Asphalt Technology

John Hickey, Executive Director,
Asphalt Pavement Association of Oregon

Moderator:

Raven Adams, Sustainability Manager,
Granite Construction

GENERAL SESSION III

Federal Panel—Impacts of Recent Legislative & Policy Efforts on the Asphalt Industry

In the past two years, legislative and policy efforts have begun including environmental impacts of construction materials, in addition to quality and cost. USDOT is moving toward a Buy Clean initiative, and FHWA is now including environmental product declarations (EPDs) as part of its implementation program, Every Day Counts. Hear a candid conversation with federal agencies about new requirements for federal projects, opportunities for contractors to reduce emissions, and how agencies and industry can work together to achieve common goals.

Asphalt Plants of the Future

Second Level—Americana Ballroom 3/4

The industry's vision for a net zero future demands changes to operations and equipment used in constructing high performing asphalt pavements. Learn about technologies available now and gain insight into the future of asphalt mix production equipment and operations. Panelists representing asphalt mix plants deliver a behind-the-scenes look at how their companies are tackling the challenges of emissions reduction, along with insights into how producers can make meaningful changes today.

Panelists:

Talent Retention Requires Culture & Planning

Second Level—Americana Ballroom 1

Employee retention is critical to creating thriving, robust organizations. Without a retention approach that accounts for changing career dynamics, companies limit their ability to compete for talent and remain strong. Learn how to develop a culture of retention, plus formulate a plan with accompanying steps to manage your organization's natural churn.

Speaker:

Thomas Haun, Chief Operating Officer,

Lessons Learned: How to Successfully Site an Asphalt Mix Plant (No Guarantees!)

Second Level—Americana Ballroom 2

It can be difficult to successfully site an asphalt mix plant. Choosing a location with appropriate zoning is increasingly difficult and changing a site's zoning can be even more difficult. Environmental justice (EJ) is being used as a call to action by communities, and even permitting agencies are using EJ to challenge sitings in both high-density and rural areas. Learn what to consider when trying to site a new plant and how to avoid/navigate common roadblocks. Hear from companies that struggled to site a new plant—some successful and some not. Learn about tools and strategies companies use to address hazards and risks perceived by neighboring communities.

AWARDS BREAKFAST & CEREMONY

NAPA honors the industry's leaders and finest companies by paying tribute to lifetime achievements, membership milestones, operational excellence, and commitment to quality in construction. See who is honored with the Sheldon G. Hayes Award, the industry's most prestigious recognition for quality in asphalt paving.

DID YOUR COMPANY WIN A 2022 QUALITY IN CONSTRUCTION AWARD?

Tuesday, February 7

7:30 am – 8:10 am

4:30 pm – 5:15 pm

Third Level—Venus

We also encourage you to visit the Awards Gallery, where 2022 QIC Award winning projects will also be highlighted.
